THE HUMANE SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED STATES

[End Factory Farming]

July 8, 2010

Dear Friend,

Join me, and special guest Sy Montgomery, bestselling author of "Birdology" and "The Good, Good Pig," for an evening of fresh and local food and beverages at fire food & drink in Cleveland, Ohio, Monday, July 19. This Respect Our Food Rendezvous event will feature delicious food by local chefs Douglas Katz, Ben Bebenroth, Parker Bosley, Heather Haviland, and Karen Small.

Space is limited – please purchase your ticket by July 14 to attend this exciting event for Ohio animals.

Our coalition is working to raise awareness and funds and to unite area residents committed to helping Ohio sustain significant change in stopping the worst abuses on industrial factory farms. Join us to learn about recent news and accomplishments for animal welfare in the state of Ohio, get involved in the continuing effort to ensure the series of animal welfare reforms are enacted, and support humane treatment of farm animals, food safety and sustainable farming practices. Together let's celebrate progress and keep the momentum going!

Ohioans for Humane Farms is a coalition of animal welfare, family farming, food safety, and environmental advocates with nearly 200 endorsements from local and national farmers and farm organizations, local veterinarians, local and national humane organizations, celebrities and more. The coalition is a grassroots movement that seeks to promote better farming practices and set minimum humane standards of care that protect animals, family farmers and our environment.

Join co-chairs Councilman Joe Cimperman, Suzanne Cushwa Rusnak and Jeff Rusnak, and Meg and Jon Ratner; as well as co-hosts Graham Veysey, Kathy Berta, Mary Grace and Josh Staph, Noelle Celeste and Jon Benedict, Gretchen Snediker and Scott Jackson, Carrie Carpenter Alice and Tony Vitiello, Jerry Austin, John Corlett, Good Nature Organic Lawn Care, and JJ and Brigham Wilson.

The event is coming up quickly, click here or call (216) 241-3133 by July 14 to purchase your ticket. I hope to see you there!

Sincerely,

Wayne Pacelle
